

Policy for Margin Reporting Calculation for NSE

Exposure is allowed to the clients based on the margin available in form of funds or approved securities valued after deducting an appropriate haircut. Client is liable to pay applicable initial margins, withholding margins, special margins or such other margins as are considered necessary by the Exchange. Further Pumarth Credit and Capital Limited at its discretion may collect additional margin or may even reduce the margin even though not required by the Exchange.

Clients are supposed to maintain sufficient balance with Pumarth Credit and Capital Limited pre trade depending on the channel through which they trade.

Pumarth Credit and Capital Limited may levy additional margins or relax the margins earlier imposed based on factors such as, client level positions, volatility in a particular stock or the market in general. Though it shall be our endeavor to ensure that a proper notice is sent to the clients, this may not always be possible taking into consideration the market scenario. Exposure allowed to clients may vary, basis the clients past trading performance, quality of collateral, market circumstances and dynamics and other such factors.

Clients may trade themselves through the internet or may trade through the sub-broker or branch.

For clients who trade through the internet, the exposure limit may be ascertained by them on the trading portal. Clients executing trades through sub-broker or branches may check their exposure positions with the sub-broker/ Branch.

Pumarth Credit and Capital Limited may at any time, at its sole discretion and without prior notice, prohibit or restrict the Client's ability to place orders or trade in securities based on certain risk parameters.
